On Tap Beer Notes

- BOCK will sponsor you if you want to enter a sanctioned brewing competition. We're hoping to get more participation by alleviating the entry and shipping fee. The treasurer will be writing a check for the first eight entries into each of the competitions listed on the schedule. We will ship all of the brews together and cover shipping for these first eight entries as well. Get brewing!
- We've been having commercial beer tastings to further educate people about beer styles and characteristics. If you think you might be interested in joining us for this, contact Chris Vandergrift (chris.vandergrift@gmail.com) or Kevin Pitz (kmpitz2@uky.edu).
- We need some articles and information to put in the newsletter. If you've written anything that might be applicable or know of something helpful, please let me know at chris.vandergrift@gmail.com.
