2009 Summer Summary

2009 was a summer full of great things for BOCK. We had our first ever homebrew contest and drew over 180 entries. Not bad for a first try! We had some LAGERS, some Music City folks, some Huntington folks ... great times were had by all. We need to begin planning for next year's event asap. Volunteers?

We had two Craft Beer Festivals and both were huge successes. Over 5000 attendees attended the festivals (combined). The 2010 Fest-of-Ales will occur the Friday before the first UK football game next year.

We had a great picnic at the Caldwell farm this summer and hope to have many more there in the future. We will be having our annual Thanksgiving dinner at the Kling's house also. Thanks to the Caldwells and the Klings.
